

Ohio Partnership for Youth

Please post or include this "Hold this Date" card in any/all distribution avenues such as newsletters, email, fax etc.

Hold This Date: October 5, 2004

For the up-coming FREE State-wide Summit
The Power of One...Plus One!

Presenters:

Ty Sells, Youth to Youth
Manny Scott, Freedom Writers

Sponsored by:

Ohio Partnership for Youth

Ohio Department of Alcohol and Drug Addiction Services

For registration information about this event in Columbus, Ohio visit: www.ebasedprevention.org or call 1-800-788-7254 opt #2 for registration materials.

It is true one person can make a difference in their community. However, learning the POWER of partnerships expands awareness of youth organizations, resources, and effective strategies; focusing on three cornerstones: community service, peer prevention and positive youth development.

Teams of one school/community adult and 4-5 teens are invited to attend this free event.

Partnership Steering Committee:

First Lady's Office, State of Ohio, Ohio Department of Education-SDFSCA, Ohio Community Service Council, The Buckeye Ranch, Cincinnati UMADAOP, Hispanic UMADAOP, Chapter Representative SADD, New Beginnings Church, Asian American Council (Wright State[Dayton]), Seal of Ohio Girl Scouts, Neil Kennedy Recovery Clinic, Salesian Boys and Girls Club of Columbus Ohio, HI-Y Leadership Service (Youth Action Councils), 4-H Extension, Belmont County Student Services, Franklin County ADAMHH Board, Simon Kenton Council Boy Scouts of America, ICEP/ASIA, Health Recovery Services (Appalachian Project), Campfire USA (Central Ohio Council), Lake Geauga TI and Chardon Community Coalition/H.A.N.D.S., Sylvania City Schools (PRIDE), Findlay Schools HAPPY Teams, Youth to Youth International, Northeast Community Challenge Coalition, Franklin County Children's Services, Big Brothers Big Sisters, Community Relations and Ohio Tobacco Use Prevention & Control Foundation